Pacific Grove Air Force Man Listed As Dead

Sgt. George Worth 27, U. S. Army Air Force, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Worth Sr. of Pacific Grove, was listed by the Defense Department today as "missing in action for more than one year and presumed dead."

Worth was reported missing last September, and it was then believed that he had been captured in Korea in 1951.

He was born in Washington and came with his family to Pacific Grove in infancy. He graduated from Pacific Grove high school and attended Hartnell College for a short time in 1945.

Mrs. Worth told The Herald that the family still holds hope for her son, and the family is taking no action at this time because of the Air Force notification.

Audubon Society April Field Trips

Two field trips are announced this month for members of the Peninsula Audubon Society, their friends and others interested. The trips are scheduled for Saturday and Monday. Those participating should bring lunch and binoculars.

On April 10 the trip will include Highway 1 and Big Sur, with sea otters observed enroute. The caravan will meet at 9 a. m. at the intersection of Highway 1 and the Carmel Valley road.

On April 19, the destination is the Marilla Ranch, Salinas. Meeting place, at 9 a.m., will be the eucalytus grove on the Monterey-Salinas highway, on the Salinas side of the bridge.

Lad Injured When Hit by Caddy Car

James Wright, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Wright of 164 Laurel St., Pacific Grove, was injured on the right leg yesterday when he was struck by an electric caddy car at Pebble Beach Golf Course.

The youth, a member of the Pacific Grove golf team, was standing next to another caddy car when a companion accidentally backed up and jammed his leg between the two vehicles. He was taken by Veterans Ambulance to the Peninsula Community Hospital where he was treated and released.

Lost Check Returned To Grateful Owner

A shy, good samaritan recovered a $115.10 check of Mrs. Sue C. Poggi of 329 Gibson Ave., Pacific Grove after she had lost it on Alvarado street in Monterey yesterday.

Mrs. Poggi, who reported the loss to Monterey police, said she was standing near the Bank of America when she discovered the allotment check was missing. A customer of the bank found it a short time later and turned it over to bank officials.

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Transocean Airlines has been sued for $500,000 by attorneys for the estate of the late Mrs. Francis McGowan, who was killed in a Transocean plane crash last July.

Local Woman In Attempt To Take Own Life

A Carmel housewife, who last night attempted to take her own life by slashing her wrist, was pronounced in good condition at Fort Ord hospital.

Mrs. Elliget's 12-year-old stepdaughter told Carmel police she witnessed the suicide attempt in the bathroom of the Elliget home at 6th and Santa Fe streets.

The girl said Mrs. Elliget told her to leave the room "because I'm going to do something drastic." The girl questioned this and Mrs. Elliget grabbed a razor blade and slashed her wrist, the girl said.

Police said Mrs. Elliget stated she was despondent over contemplated divorce proceedings by her husband, Col. Donald A. Elliget, who is overseas.

The girl said her stepmother had been under doctor's care for mental treatment.
