Dear Ed:

Thank you for the clarifying note concerning Monsanto's polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs).

God knows, we've written enough about PCBs to have known better, but I guess that we just forgot. I am sorry about our collective lapse in memory.

I have passed your note along to Don Richards, Jim Gubitosi and Harry Van as a visual reminder on how to treat PCBs when next we have occasion to refer to them editorially.

Sincerely yours,

Art
