Soccer: Charlton Is Hero

LONDON (AP) — Manchester United gained first place in the English First Division for the first time in five seasons Saturday with a 3-0 soccer victory over Huddersfield.

Forward Bobby Charlton, celebrating his 15th anniversary with Manchester, scored one of the goals. United's other scorers were George Best and Denis Law. All the goals came in the second half.

Sheffield United, which had held the lead, was upset 3-2 by Stoke on Gerry Conroy's goal ending Sheffield's run of 15 home games without a defeat.

Arsenal maintained its fine form of recent weeks when it crushed Newcastle 4-2.

Officials estimated that mob violence at a soccer match Monday night caused more than $100,000 damage to Bangkok's National Stadium. Fans swept on the field in anger when the referee decided to abandon play in a Queen's Club Football Tournament semifinal between Indonesia Port Authority and Bugo Putra of Thailand after a scoreless first half played in pouring rain.

Pele has failed to score a goal in 11 consecutive starts for Santos in Brazil's 1971 National Soccer Tournament; he retired earlier this year from his nation's national team. . .

NHL: Bruins Fizzle, Seals All Tied Up

By The Associated Press

Tom Johnson, coach of the Boston Bruins, gave his club a tongue-lashing after it finished the National Hockey League's exhibition campaign with a dismal 3-6-1 record.

"I've been trying to impress upon them they just can't turn it on and off at will," he said. "We'll be all right . . . nothing to worry about," promised goalie Gerry Cheevers.

Johnson's apprehension was proved right and Cheevers' prediction was proved wrong Sunday night as the Bruins opened their regular season with a 4-1 setback on home ice to the New York Rangers.

In other Sunday games, Chicago edged Detroit 2-1, Buffalo defeated Pittsburgh 2-1, Los Angeles topped Vancouver 4-3, and Toronto and California tied 3-3.

There were no games last night.

Last season, the Bruins skated to their first division title in 30 years, smashing 37 league and individual records on the way to the East championship. But they were unceremoniously ousted by eventual champion Montreal in the first round of the Stanley Cup playoffs. Apparently, they haven't gotten over the shock of the upset.

"The whole team didn't play up to par," said a dejected Johnson in the quiet Boston dressing room.

Ranger defenseman Brad Park concurred. "I thought the Bruins were disorganized . . . their attack, their style," he said. "But you have to give some credit to us. Maybe we made them play that way."

New York goalie Ed Giacomin took the initial sting out of the Boston attack, stopping 18 shots in the first period. He had 37 saves over-all.

Rod Gilbert, Bruce McGregor, Bill Fairbairn and Jean Ratelle scored for the Rangers, while Phil Esposito, who netted a record-shattering 76 goals last season, spoiled Giacomin's game with a goal in the final period.

First-period goals by Gerry Meehan and Rod Zaine gave the Sabres their victory over Pittsburgh before a record Buffalo crowd of 15,429.

Ross Lonsberry and Ralph Backstrom scored less than three minutes apart in the final period as Los Angeles broke a 2-2 deadlock against Vancouver then held off the Canucks.

Wayne Carleton scored two power play goals in the third period to help the California Golden Seals into a 3-3 tie with the Toronto Maple Leafs. The 6-foot-2 left wing evened the scoring after Toronto had used two second period goals by Paul Henderson and one by Jim Dorey to offset Carol Vadnais' first period maker.

In Saturday night games, In Saturday night games, Chicago downed St. Louis 4-2, Pittsburgh nipped Philadelphia 3-2, Minnesota trimmed Detroit 4-2 and Montreal beat New York played to a 4-2 tie.

California Seals traded left wing Randy Rota and cash to the Montreal Canadiens for rookie goalie Lyle Carter of Muskegon. . .

The Hockey News picked Boston and Chicago to repeat as division champions. . .

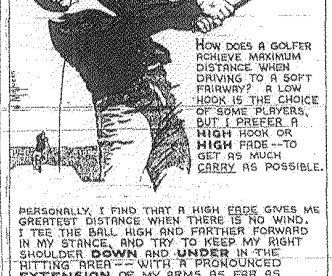
DRIVING TO A SOFT FAIRWAY



HOW DOES A GOLFER ACHIEVE MAXIMUM DISTANCE WHEN DRIVING TO A SOFT FAIRWAY? A LOW HOOK IS THE CHOICE OF SOME PLAYERS, BUT I PREFER A HIGH HOOK OR HIGH FADE--TO GET AS MUCH CARRY AS POSSIBLE.

PERSONALLY, I FIND THAT A HIGH FADE GIVES ME GREATEST DISTANCE WHEN THERE IS NO WIND. I TEE THE BALL HIGH AND FARTHER FORWARD IN MY STANCE, AND TRY TO KEEP MY RIGHT SHOULDER DOWN AND UNDER IN THE HITTING AREA--WITH PRONOUNCED EXTENSION OF MY ARMS AS FAR AS POSSIBLE AFTER IMPACT.
