Mrs. Henry Newman, A cat, and Mrs. John Chaney, a contending witch, rehearse their parts in "Hansel and Gretel."

Rosalind Jordan, 9, bed-ridden with a rheumatic heart, cuddles her dearest possession, a French poodle named Surette, at her Milton, Mass., home. Rosalind had $1.05 saved towards a puppy when she heard that four Jesuits had died when fire destroyed the Shadowbrook Novitiate in Lenox, Mass. She sent the money in a rebuilding fund with a note "I'm sorry your house burned down." When New England Jesuits heard of her sacrifice they said they would pray for her. Newspaper stories about the girl prompted Mrs. Edwin Hall of Dedham, Mass., to send Rosalind Surette.

Cuban Officers Go on Trial On Revolt Charge

HAVANA (UP) Twelve Cuban Army and Air Force officers accused of complicity in the "Cienfuegos conspiracy" pushed here this week go on trial today on charges of conspiracy to overthrow Premier Castro, a maximum penalty of six years imprisonment.

Informed sources said the government has decided to drop charges of treason against the military rebels. Death is the maximum penalty under Cuban military law.

Col. Ramon Barquin, military attache in Washington, is said to have been the principal leader of the abortive conspiracy. On trial with him are two lieutenant colonels, two majors, three captains and four lieutenants.
