...ves Still Hopes United States

...ted, trying to save her... Dowe very swiftly there, ...e weather was cold. The ...rought them both. ...BOTH.

...ve been years at sea, and ... well. I could see what ...appening. The woman's ...r held her up, but she ...have a chance in that cur... with the water so cold ... did the man who jumped ... her. The current kept ...g him shoreward. He ... reach her. I knew he ... reach her. ...w all this. It didn't take ... take it all in. So I jumped. ... were guards with me, but ... didn't try to stop me. They ...atching the man and wom... they didn't know what ...my mind. I beat them to ...

...t them out all right. The ...nd the woman both of ... It wasn't hard. I am used ...mming in cold water. ...guards were looking for ...gain myself up and they ...e back to the Neredam. ... were very nice to me. Of ... they had to obey orders ...ndam was about to sail ... would liked to have remained ...rica, but there was nothing ...uld be done about that. ...guards asked the ship's ...to give me a good passage. ... Veendam's crew, me for ...espondent, most of them ...nd. The passengers made ...over me. I had a fine trip.

I would like to go back to ...ne States again. If I could ...come an American citizen.

...ORT $33,000 ...RAISED FOR ADS

...ittlemen Gratified by ...wing Made In Cam... ...n to Boost City.

...only people reported at ...ne of the San Diego Ci... ...clubs' weekly luncheon ...ion $33,000 was reported ...ed to the $150,000 quota ...o spoken for San Diego ...ent to its creditors' meeti... ...ll be held shortly. ...ed by the chairman ... ...ed that the ... ...ld drive with not less ... ...ed today. ...Dego is to be beautifu... ...ts to the campaign. ...The session consisting of ...ncheon, described "Whit... ...ills" as a ... ...e prospects ... ...ery optimistic ... ...ly about ... ...ness and ... ...ve ... ...ions ... ...ing ... ...ing ... ...ing