Dear Sirs:

I wrote a letter to you on September 29, 1982, indicating a desire to negotiate a dignifed and equitable settlement for the widow of an ex-employee who died after working around asbestos dust at the W.R. Grace mine in Libby, Montana, for fifteen years.

You chose to ignore my first letter and I will attribute that to sloppy office procedure. If you do not respond to this letter by February of 1983 I will assume you do not wish to negotiate a settlement and I will then retain one of the top trial lawyer's in Idaho to pursue this matter in the court system.

Sincerely yours,

Richard J. Gomez
