Sitting in his office in the aging high school building the superintendent, aware of rising in the air, then talked about his people.

"Most are poor and underprivileged economic stock," he said. "A good quality of them still think people who did have to work for a living. They don't want handouts. But if you can show them a way to do something better, they'll listen."

His students, he believes, are more highly motivated than, say, the suburban boy or Parish, Bailey said, caused Angel- types of Negro, Polish, Italian and Spanish backgrounds to vote Democratic.

The Democratic challenge could be based on contributions to analysis of election returns from 100 wards and assembly districts in 31 major cities.

Bailey said the Democrats won 64 per cent of the vote in 82 predominantly Negro wards, 75 per cent in 49 Italian wards, 70 per cent in 47 Spanish wards and 61 per cent in 33 Polish wards.
