RE: BARLIEB V. JOHNS-MANVILLE

Dear Mr. Marshall:

In Civil Action No. 78-1027 filed in the United States District Court, Eastern District of Pennsylvania, and styled James H. Barlieb and Millie Barlieb, his wife v. Turner & Newall, Ltd., et al, I enclose the following items:

1. Transmittal letter dated April 17, 1978,
2. Summons (2),
3. Complaint.

This action was received by registered mail on April 17, 1978 at our Toronto office and forwarded to Denver by G. P. Loubert. It was received in Denver on April 24, 1978.

This action is brought against seven defendants. Plaintiff was employed by Certaineed Products, Ambler, Pennsylvania from 1951 until 1973 and alleges to be suffering from mesothelioma and/or asbestosis. Alternative theories of negligence, breach of implied warranty, and strict liability in tort. Wife includes a claim for loss of services and consortium. Plaintiff seeks unspecified compensatory and punitive damages in excess of $500,000.

Please enter an appearance on behalf of and take all steps necessary to protect the interests of the named Johns-Manville entities in the above-titled matter.

Yours truly,

Dennis H. Marksson
