

January 26, 1942

Major General James C. Magee
Surgeon General
United States Army
Washington, D. C.

Dear General Magee:

It is a privilege to write you a note concerning Dr. Anthony J. Lanza.

I have known Dr. Lanza intimately for twenty years and during most of that time he has been a close neighbor of mine and also an active colleague on the preventive medical and public health staff of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

Dr. Lanza is a man of the highest standing. All who know him have the greatest respect for his personal integrity, his professional ability, and his record of accomplishment in a variety of important fields.

I am glad to have the opportunity to record the above sentiments regarding Dr. Lanza.

Sincerely yours,

Third Vice-President

[redacted]

January 26, 1942

Major General James C. Magee
Surgeon General
United States Army
Washington, D. C.

Dear General Magee:

It is a privilege to write you a note concerning Dr. Anthony J. Lanza.

I have known Dr. Lanza intimately for twenty years and during most of that time he has been a close neighbor of mine and also an active colleague on the preventive medical and public health staff of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

Dr. Lanza is a man of the highest standing. All who know him have the greatest respect for his personal integrity, his professional ability, and his record of accomplishment in a variety of important fields.

I am glad to have the opportunity to record the above sentiments regarding Dr. Lanza.

Sincerely yours,

Third Vice-President

[redacted]