rapplers at the bottom seize any objects beneath it. The machine can work in any weather that is not too rough for the salvage vessel to be out.

During three days that the new apparatus worked recently no gold bars were raised, but indications are certain, according to the inventors, that the right spot has been struck and hopes are entertained that the rest of the Lutines precious cargo, estimated at between $5,000,000 and $10,000,000, soon will be wrested from Davy Jones' locker.

Get Rich Quick Plan Is Foiled

WATSONVILLE, Oct. 1. John Wilson was doing quite a profitable business in Watsonville, until he came in contact with Acting Chief of Police John Corr, when his get-rich-quick activities were brought to a sudden close.

This came about by reason of the fact that Wilson was engaged in the fake jewelry line, and was disposing of worthless articles of this kind, on the allegation that they were the real gold.

After several successful sales the word reached the ears of the officer, who ran Wilson out of town, with the admonition that he stay out.
