SMITH MADE INDIAN CHIEF

North Dakota has four electoral votes.

Maddock, who was lieutenant governor and succeeded to the governorship a few weeks ago upon the death of Governor A. G. Sorlie, daily gave what was regarded as an endorsement of Smith after being pressed insistently for his stand by newspaper men on the campaign train, which he joined at Bismarck for the trip to Jamestown. Maddock was accompanied by the entire executive committee of the state committee.

The democratic candidate also found that the religious issue plays some part here, particularly among the German Lutheran population.

Joseph Greggins Is Grand Knight

Election of officers was held last night by the Vallejo Council, No. 774, Knights of Columbus.

Joseph Greggins was elected Grand Knight; William Pino, deputy grand knight; Philip H. Lynch, chancellor; John S. Ward, warden; James S. McCauley, recording secretary; J. M. Nachbauer, treasurer; L. E. Darnell, advocate; Amos Caston, inside guard; Joseph Koph, outside guard, and William Herbert, trustee.

Contract Is Awarded For New Hotel Sewer

The contract for the installation of a new 8-inch sewer for the Casa de Vallejo has been awarded to J. A. Freitas, Oakland contractor. The pipe is to be 400 feet in length and is to be laid in the alley in the rear of the hotel. The sewer will drain the hotel as well as the swimming tank.

The new sewer will connect with the Marin street sewer near the new city hall.

De Molay Granted Use Of School Auditorium

Vallejo Chapter, Order of De Molay, has been granted permission by the board of education to use the Vallejo high school auditorium for a vaudeville show. The show is to be held on the evenings of October 19 and 20.

Vallejo had its first rain of the season yesterday but it was not enough to show on the register. It was the first rain that the city has had since May 8.
