ing on their way from Berkeley to Paso Robles. They spent the time with Mrs. Benly's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kemp. Miss Ruth will go in a few days to Taft, where she will teach in the High school during the coming year.

L. W. Barber has leased of C. F. Dewey the three lots at the south east corner of Monterey and Fourth streets and will erect an up-to-date service station there. The ground will be laid out neatly so as to be in keeping with the building. Work will begin at once. This means another improvement for the town.

The new soda fountain and lunch place to be opened by Chas. Miller is to be called "The Green Lantern." A very attractive sign was put up this week. The name is painted upon the upper part of the sign, while the word "Soda" appears in electric lamps in the middle. A green lantern will be suspended from the sign at the bottom.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Kemp enjoyed a visit Tuesday and Wednesday from Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Woolbury of Albany, and Mr. and Mrs. Will White of Omaha, Nebraska. Mr. Woolbury is Mr. Kemp's nephew, and Mrs. White is Mrs. Woolbury's sister. Mr. White has had a position in the Omaha postoffice for the past eighteen years.

Work on the Farmers Union building is now approaching completion. B. A. Snyder has several men working on the painting. Local workman have been employed almost exclusively. The marble work was put in by a San Francisco firm, and the window glass is being supplied by the Garden City Glass Co. The latter arrived Tuesday. The sidewalk is being laid by Nielsen & Smith.

Among the coins obtained from different animals during the past few days are a small coin dated 1793 bearing the name of Victor Amed of Sardinia, a Charles II farthing dated 1674, a George III half-penny dated 1806, and a Hamburg shilling dated 1727.—London Mail.

time that these forts were besieged.

The horn is elaborately engraved with the royal arms of Great Britain and the map showing the ancient town of Tournay and other towns in the region in which the soldier saw service.
