The fight card may be the last at the armory, or anywhere if Mickey cannot find new quarters. Last week's wrestling card was also the last. All because the state (which apparently wants to keep the armory strictly for National Guard use) has upped the rent to a prohibitive figure.

Ball Players Get Pink Slips

NEW YORK, May 4 (U.P.)—There were probably plenty of pink slips in the mail today as the major leagues began their annual spring chore of cutting their squads to the 25-player limit by the May 15 deadline

Rookies Glen Nelson and Larry Miggins of the St Louis Cardinals, Ray Boone of the Cleveland Indians and Lou Grasmick of the Philadelphia Phils were already on their way back to the minors after hearing the bad news yesterday
