Accident Investigation, Analysis, and Costs

Chapter 12

Accident Investigation and Analysis 268

Purpose of investigation Persons making the investigation Cases to be investigated The key facts in accidents Identifying the key facts Examples of identifying key facts Classifying the key facts Making the analysis Using the analysis

Estimating Accident Costs 280

Definition of work accidents for cost analysis Method for estimating Example of a cost estimate Items of uninsured cost Making a pilot study Development of final cost estimate

References 288