[redacted]

An indemnification agreement has been concluded with Union Carbide, on the line of asbestos materials. Management believes it provides adequate protection in the event of any possible future liability claims.

The manufacturing and product performance problems with DKS have been resolved. New, more stringent quality control and performance