Q And what was the duties of the driver mechanic?

A The basic duty of the driver mechanic was to just drive the truck to haul the mail.

I don't know why they had the mechanic title.

Q Because you didn't do any mechanic work?

A No, you didn't do that much. You just had to get the truck off the road or do something like that.

Q When you and Mr. Wood became the driver mechanic in 1952, did you ever have to return or go to the Preston Street garage?

A Every day.

Q And why would you -- what would you do in terms of going every day?

A You had to go to the Preston Street garage to pick up your keys, pick up your pistol, and to pick up the truck.

Q And then you would continue on your route?

A Each driver had a particular route he worked
