head. "Red" for no apparent reason. Suddenly, after a violent windup and several contortions, landed a sharp two-inch spur in the kneecap of the blacksmith. The leg was paralyzed for two days.

LONDON.—The freighter Suffolk had just reached Liverpool and was being unloaded. Stevedores rushed from the hold, complaining of a dreadful odor. Two officers went to investigate. Half an hour later, when they had failed to return, a search was started. They were found unconscious in the hold, gassed by the fumes given off by the ship's cargo of cheese.
