FFICES AND COURTS.

trust for the estate. Messrs. Stephens & Stephens are plaintiff's attorneys.

SMITH CASES.

HEARING CONTINUED.

The filing of two new complaints against William T. Smith, the assayer, who is charged by the Bank of California with embezzlement and obtaining money by false pretenses, caused his preliminary examination in the Township Court to be continued until May 3, when the defendant will be given a hearing on all three charges consecutively.

Smith is still in the City Jail. The first complaint against him charges that he obtained $369 from the bank falsely; the second charges embezzlement in over $2800, and the third false pretenses in $215. His attorneys are John G. Mott, Esq., George P. Adams, Esq., and Messrs. Davis & Rush. Joined with Deputy District Attorney Jones in the prosecution of the cases is Lynn Helm, Esq., the bank's attorney. One of the principal witnesses for the State will be Peter G. du Py, head assayer of the Selby Smelting Company of San Francisco, who will be here to attend the preliminary examinations in May.

THE OWL'S FLIGHT HOURS TOO EARLY.

BUSINESS MEN CAN'T GET THEIR LETTERS READY.

Protest from Los Angeles Merchants to President Hays of Southern Pacific—Postoffice Officials Take Cognizance of Their Complaints.

The business men of this city will petition President Hays of the Southern Pacific to change the time of the Owl train leaving this city on its journey northward from 5 o'clock in the afternoon to a later hour. The petition is the outcome of the fact that the business houses cannot get their mail in readiness by the time the train leaves, and there is no other until morning.

The time of the Owl was changed one month ago from 7 o'clock to 5. From the time of the change there has been a great inconvenience to commer-
