Dear Don:

I am completely out of your reprints of the chapter on Industrial Lead Poisoning, from Patty's Industrial Hygiene and Toxicology. Those in my hands have found a varied and (I think) productive use, and I need more of them if they are available. I could certainly make good use of as many as you sent me at first.

I should imagine that you have found good use for these reprints too, so that your remaining supply may not be inexhaustable. I'll take what I can get, therefore, with appropriate thanks. I'd like to take half a dozen or so with me to Buenos Aires (leaving Cincinnati for Washington, New York and Buenos Aires on the evening of June 7), if that should be possible, and if this number could be sent to me between now and then, I would be most grateful.

Sincerely,

Robert A. Kehoe, M.D.
