IN RE: ABRAMS November 1992

Appendix E

Some Simple Asphyxiants – "Inert" Gases and Vapors.

Acetylene	Hydrogen
Argon	Methane
Ethane	Neon
Ethylene	Nitrogen
Helium	Nitrous Oxide

Copyright 1966, by American Conference of Governmental Industrial Hygienists.

The American Conference of Governmental Industrial Hygienists will welcome requests for permission to republish or reprint these Threshold Limit Values. Requests for such permission should be directed to the Secretary-Treasurer, 1014 Broadway, Cincinnati, Ohio 45202.

Single Copies – 30 cents

The 2nd edition of the Documentation of Threshold Limit Values, rewritten and greatly enlarged to include the approximately 400 substances in the list, is available and may be purchased from the Secretary-Treasurer. The Documentation should be consulted when using the Threshold Limit Values herein.

E. J. Baier
Allan L. Coleman
Hervey B. Elkins, Ph.D.
W. G. Fredrick, Ph.D.
Bernard Grabois, P.E.
Paul Gross, M.D.
Wayland J. Haves, Jr. M.D.
Harold N. MacFarland, Ph.D., Consultant
E. Mastromatteo, M.D.
Russel G. Scovill
Ralph G. Smith, Ph.D.
George W. Wright, M.D. Consultant
Mitchell R. Zavon, M.D.

Herbert E. Stokinger, Ph.D., Chairman

03122229