he Grove ends, Gerry Herzog Max Kelly, put in an excellent t's work. Herzog made several catches to set up the first few ns that the Breakers made. If y keeps on snagging the pass- s he has for the remainder of season, he may well come in All-CCAL honors.

ie center of the line, composed oe Sandlin, Maurice Galasso, Arano, Duane Brooks and Bottaro, didn't have the fire they had in the previous game, consequently, large holes were ed in the line, allowing Tiger s to scamper through for size- gains. The forward wall re- red in the second half, how- enough to halt the Fremont ught.

ckfield fumbles by the quar- f Ben Mack, Frank Brightwell, r Brown and Jerry Nair, gave ont their two scores and cost Breakers at least two t. d.'s st night's subs included Jim nas, Vance Lowrey, Dorsey erman, Leroy Isaacson and an Smeltzer.

ove eyes will now be focused ie Carmel game next Friday ie Grove turf, and all effort be given throughout the week n the big game of the season oth high schools.

Dogs of San Jose High School. The lightweights perform at 6:30 p.m., with the heavyweight team coming on immediately afterward. This is the first game of the season for the Bulldogs, and they will be favored to drop the contest to the relatively experienced Monterey squad, with three games behind them.

Varsity starters for the main event will probably be Allen King and Bob Baugh or Bill Harrison at ends, Vic Davi and Bill Krebs at tackles, John Lo Monaco and Ed Zubov at guards with Vince Maiorana at center. In the backfield, Al Matthews, Joe Grammatico, John Anestasi and Dick Narvaes are the probable combination.

Tom Brown Wins In Tennis Tourney

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 4 (AP)—Tom Brown of San Francisco, who yesterday came back after a first set loss to whip the sensational Los Angeles newcomer, Dick Gonzales, meets Jim Brink of Seattle in semi-finals of the Pacific Coast Tennis championships today.

In the other big semi-finals match national champion Jack Kramer of Los Angeles goes against Ed Moylan of San Francisco.

It was Brown's speed that defeated Gonzales yesterday. Through the first set the 19-year-old Los Angeles boy had fired away with a big serve and crowded to the next for his volleys to take an easy victory.

Henning-Humberto to Team for Wrestling
