ates, on "Management's Tools: Budgeting and Cost Control," and Frank Tims, Palo Alto public accountant, on "An Accountant's Approach to Business Operations."

Subsequent seminars are scheduled as follows:

MAY 21 — Jack Herrick, advertising manager of Magna Power Tool Corporation, on "Techniques of Point of Sale Merchandising"; Joseph F. X. Monasta, professor of business administration at the University of Santa Clara, on "The Challenge of Selling," and M. S. Badger, general merchandising manager of Hart's Department Store in San Jose, on "Modern Retailing Methods."

MAY 28 — Fay Cameron, personnel manager of Emporium-Stanford, on "An Employer Selects Personnel"; Obert J. Haavik, supervisor of organizational development for Continental Can Company, on "Training and Developing Executives and Managers," and Thomas S. Appleyard, personnel manager of Eastman Kodak Company, on "Personnel Integration."

The latest contract, awarded the Palo Alto firm by army ordnance, totals $45,030 for components for electronic instruments.

UP THE LADDER: Glenn V. Hammond, resident of 1731 Fordham Way in Mountain View, has joined American Trust Company's downtown Palo Alto branch as an assistant cashier in charge of the monthly loan department.

Hammond, veteran of 17 years with the bank, served last in San Francisco. In his latest appointment he replaces Kenneth Jones, who was transferred to the Burlingame branch.

VINEGAR BEND?

PARIS, Tex. (AP) — A bird flew into the cab of James Daniel Johnson's pickup truck. Johnson grabbed for the bird and lost control of the truck. The pickup crashed into a vinegar tank car standing on a railroad siding, causing $250 damage to the truck and $150 to the tank car. The bird got away.

WANTED: MUSICAL DUBS

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—Dr. Sigmund Spaeth, noted composer, author and music critic, says people who would like to play a musical instrument but have no talent should make a stab at it just for their own pleasure. "Like golf, tennis or baseball, music needs a great many dubs," he says.
