Tells About So. Amer. CHINCHILLAS

BIG PROFITS NOW RAISING THIS FUR

Chinchilla is the world's most exclusive fur. Coats requiring 140 skins have sold in excess of $50,000. Animals are practically extinct in the high Andes and So. American nations forbid exportation. Some 1000 pairs, most of which are ranched in L. A. County, constitute about 90% of the world's visible supply. In the future this fine, luxurious fur must come from domesticated herds. Owners of breeding stock hold key to new industry and are making big profits now from breeding animals.
