ning.

A Red Cross work report was made by Hazel Smith, chairman, who emphasized the need for more workers in surgical dressings and also for the Monday afternoon sewing group at St. Mary's.

Harold E. Ralph, a visitor from Santa Clara, was welcomed and introduced and Hazel Braunton added to everyone's pleasure in the evening by singing a solo.

Both Mrs. Rubin and Miss Tuck were called upon to speak and they both responded with words of inspiration and beauty.

George Schuyler was appointed program chairman for the next meeting on April 19 which will feature education.

Mrs. Arch Balcom and her committee had charge of the banquet room where refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

PRE-NUPTIAL SHOWER FOR KAY DARCY

The Alvarado street apartment of Irene Goodnow and Violet Smart was decked in glamour Wednesday night for the supper party and surprise pre-nuptial shower honoring Kay Darcy whose marriage to Lieutenant Earl Power will take place sometime during the latter part of this week at the home of Lt. Colonel and Mrs. Winfield Martin in Carmel.

The Misses Goodnow and Smart had arranged their dining room in pink and white, a mass of pink camellias in the center of the table. Pink candles shed the only light and an interesting menu was enjoyed by all.

Present were Mrs. Robert Bratt, Violet Perez, Frances Passailaigue, Edith Goodnow, Avalon Evans, Evelyn Bettencourt, Clara and Tom Brucia, Betty Elder, Dorothy Bastedo, and the two hostesses and the honoree.

The bride-elect is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Darcy and has been working for the past year and a half in the Monterey branch of the Bank of America.

GOOD NEWS OF MRS. FOGG'S RECOVERY

Mrs. Charles Fogg of Pacific Grove is reported to be much improved since her operation last Thursday in the Carmel hospital.

MISS ROSALIE GIAMMANCO, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Giammanco of Monterey, whose engagement to Michael Bruno of Pittsburg was announced recently. Wedding plans are still indefinite as, since the engagement was announced "Mike" has gone into the army.

AND SHE SHALL WEAR DIAMONDS

Antoinette Tardio blew out her three little candles and cut her own beautiful birthday cake Wednesday afternoon when playmates and friends gathered at the Sebastian Tardio home on Monroe street to celebrate her third birthday. Blue and white streamers were attached to the birthday table from the ceiling, Easter egg placecards were all around, and the cake, a truly marvelous one, held the spotlight in the center.

Antoinette received a great many gifts but outstanding among them was the diamond ring, her birth stone, given to her by her two aunts, Sarah Palma and Lena Tardio.

Others present included the following playmates: Mary, Fred and Frank Conte, Frank Tardio, Rose Manzella, Garnet Wilson, Jr., Kathleen Palma, Genevieve Manzella, Vera Giacalone, Johanna and Phyllis Roccia, Steve Bellec and Dorothy Siragusa, and the following adults: Mesdames Sebastian Tardio, Lena Tardio, Catherine Palma, Garnet Wilson, Jenny Conte, Antoinette Bellec and Anna B. Thompson.

AT MRS. RAYNSFORD'S

A farewell get-together for Marjorie Twilegar, erstwhile secretary to Monterey's city manager, Mrs. Christine Raynsford, was given for her Wednesday night by Mrs. Raynsford at her attractive home on the Monterey Mesa. The group was made up of co-workers from the city hall and included Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dorsey, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Severance, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Graham, Mrs. W. E. Parker, Tom Brucia, Mrs. Dora Douglas, Jean Morehead, E. C. Walker, Mrs. Marion Todd, Mrs. Bertha Hellum, the guest of honor and the hostess.

Marjorie, who leaves Monterey in a few days to report for basic training in the WACs at Fort Des Moines, was presented with a fine leather writing case by her fellow workers. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Raynsford at evening's close.

Jean Morehead, incidentally, is Mrs. Raynsford's new secretary. Jean was formerly associated with the Pacific Grove "Tide" where she was on the writing staff.

PHYLLIS MOORE AND KEITH HOME AGAIN

Mrs. Roger Moore (Phyllis Bishop) of Pacific Grove and her small and well-traveled son, Keith, have just returned from an enjoyable week in San Luis Obispo where they were the house guests of their old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin D. Haines, former next door neighbors when Cpl. Moore was stationed in that city.

Mrs. Moore also attended the wedding last Sunday of Kathleen Reese former Pacific Grove girl, to Cpl. Charles Z. Steinman which took place in the San Luis Obispo Presbyterian church and was attended by quite a group of friends from Pacific Grove.

GIRL SCOUT UNIFORMS NOT IN USE NEEDED

A plea for used Girl Scout uniforms is again sent out with the hope that more uniforms will turn up in time for the Juliette Low world friendship fund program on April 15 so that more girls may participate. New uniforms are not available at the present time. Used ones will be paid for by the girls and, if one happens to be donated, the money will be used instead for the world friendship fund.

Any Girl Scout uniforms not in use may be either brought to the Girl Scout house at 404 El Estero, Monterey, or a telephone call to 4482 will bring a staff member to collect in person.

The Juliette Low program will be held at the Walter Colton school at 2 o'clock on Saturday, April 15.

SOROPTIMISTS HAVE AN ANNIVERSARY COMING

A large gathering attended the luncheon meeting of the Soroptimist club Wednesday afternoon at the Forest Hill hotel, when an impressive amount of important business was accomplished. The leading topic of discussion was the club's 10th anniversary, April 23, and members voted to celebrate the day with a birthday party on April 27.

Following a report by the chairman of the by-laws committee, Mrs. Blanche Yount, the club voted to change its by-laws. Several donations were pledged during the meeting including an additional sum of money to the present regular donation to the USO, and $5 to the mobile unit of the American Legion Auxiliary.

nets of this present war.

The tea table was decorated in the Easter manner by Miss Flora Hartwell, and refreshments were served by Mrs. W. H. Satchel, Mrs. Winslow Conn, Mrs. A. E. Webb and Mrs. W. B. Hoffman.

The bridge section meets on Monday, April 10, at 2 o'clock.

On Tuesday, April 11, Miss Agnes Knight will entertain the board of directors and a few friends at luncheon at the Normandy at 12:30 p.m. Afterwards, the board will hold its regular monthly session.

The garden section is scheduled to meet with Miss Winifred Lynn, Fourteenth and San Antonio, on April 14.

MRS. KRAUS' SISTER HERE FROM FLORIDA

Mrs. Anthony Yogan of Tampa, Florida, has arrived in Carmel for a visit of an indefinite period with her sister, Mrs. Edward Kraus of Ridgewood Road.

Both Mrs. Kraus' husband, Colonel Kraus, and Mrs. Yogan's husband, Lieutenant Yogan, are overseas, serving in the Pacific theater and the Atlantic area respectively. Colonel and Mrs. Kraus have been residents of the Peninsula for the past year.
