neglect; that boilers and elevators are in a bad state of repair and security is poor.

He also said linens — drapes and shower curtains — are not rotting, and uncrated kitchen supplies "are merely stored in the old building temporarily until needed" at the new hospital.

Rohrs said Woodward's guess thatt a new wing on Palo Alto-Stanford Hospital would be cheaper than renovating the older facility "is just that, a guess."

He said he would estimate renovation costs will be "in the area of one-fourth the cost of new construction."

The Johnsons' landlady in Philadelphia, Pauline Wittlin, said that she had offered to let them live rent free in their old apartment until Johnson got on his feet again.

Johnson said they were going back to Philadelphia by train as soon as a State Department aide, who is meeting them here, arranges it.

Death takes Thomas Clark of Cupertino

Thomas E. Clark, a San Jose pharmacist, died Thursday in a San Jose Hopsital after a short illness. He was 57.

He lived at 10430 Wunderlich Drive, Cupertino, for the last four years, and in California all his life.

He was a native of Ojai.

His wife, Dorothy, one brother and three sisters, survive.

Services are pending at the Levalley-Sunnyvale Mortuary, 460 S. Murphy Ave., Sunnyvale.
