PRESIDENT LIKES BRYAN, ASKS HIM TO REMAIN

San Carlos Notes

[illegible]

Honoring the [illegible] anniversary of her daughter, Mrs. H. G. Huntley [illegible] tertain a group of [illegible] mates at an attractive [illegible] party at the Huntley home [illegible] day afternoon between 2 and [illegible] p. m.

On account of the extreme [illegible] season this year, Fire Chief [illegible] ward J. Wheeler, issued a warning this week asking everyone [illegible] extremely cautious about fire.

The unusual dry season has made it necessary to remove weeds at a much earlier date than heretofore, state Wheeler. The [illegible] calls attention to city ordinance No. 38, requiring a permit for the starting of fires to burn rubbish, grass, etc.

Mrs. O. M. Offield who has been visiting in Marysville for [illegible] days returned to her home here.

Harold Jones, director of the Players club who was taken to the hospital Sunday morning for an operation due to an infection in his right arm, is reported today as having recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Buckles of Laurel street are entertaining as their house guest Miss Theresa Davis of Hollywood.

Mrs. William Hartlett, former resident of San Carlos is visiting with friends here. She plans to live in San Carlos.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stinson are accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stevens of Elm street spent the week end at Big Basin.
