several years before you assumed your position as executive director.

(Exhibit P, 6/8/59 FMSI Meeting Minutes, marked for identification.)

BY MR. PURCELL:

Q What I would like to do is direct your attention to page 7 where the secretary at that time, your predecessor, Miss Duschek read the following report in the absence of Mr. Miller who was then chairman of the historical sales committee, and it's in quotes. If I could direct your attention to the third paragraph, I just have one question about this document.

A Yeah.

Q Take whatever time you would like to orient yourself to the document. It's discussing just various items of FMSI business.

MR. FRIESTEDT: Objection to form.

A (Complies.) Okay, I have looked at it.

Q If I could draw your attention to this quote from the report of the historical sales committee, it reads, quote, From the chairman, the industry now has in these reports a sound foundation for continued historical sales statistics which cover your a high percentage of the industry
