Cannery Strike In North Could Close S.D. Plant

A strike scheduled tomorrow by the AFL Cannery Workers Union against canneries in San Pedro, Long Beach and Wilmington could cause the closing of the Van Camp Sea Food cannery in San Diego, according to Ronald Dorr, local of fice manager.

Dorr said the union contracts at the Van Camp canneries are affiliated with the San Pedro group and if picketing on the canning docks should take place, the San Diego employes there would not cross.

The union at San Pedro has asked for a wage increase of 15 cents an hour, a fifteen week term, Monday through Friday and other benefits, the International News Service reported.

Moose Lodge Robbed Of $90 At Imperial

IMPERIAL — Sheriff's deputies yesterday were investigating a burglary of the Moose lodge headquarters south of here from which approximately $90 was stolen.

The building was entered through a window broken Aug. 21 by firemen when a fire broke out inside the lodge. The burglar forced the door open and pried the cash box
