A Dependency Claim Petition for compensation having been duly filed, claiming compensation under Article 2, Chapter 15, Title 34 of the Revised Statutes, its supplements and amendments thereto.

And an Answer having been duly filed,

This matter came before me, William D. Hill, Judge of Compensation, at 400 Market Street, Camden, New Jersey on July 16, 1974 and testimony having been presented on the issues involved and stipulations having been entered on the record, I find and determine as follows:

1. Decedent, Charles Rennles, Jr., was in the employ of the Respondent for several years prior to October 2, 1972 during which time he sustained occupational exposure to asbestosis causing lung cancer resulting in his death on March 30, 1973.

2. Respondent had due and timely notice thereof.

3. Respondent has paid all medical bills.

4. Decedent's wages were $157.50 per week.

5. Decedent left surviving him the following dependents who were fully dependent upon him: Gary M. Rennles, who was born on August 27, 1959; his widow, Anna J. Rennles, who was born on November 8, 1930.

6. Dependency benefits shall be paid by Respondent under said statute and as reflected in the SUMMARY OF AWARD.
