Two Marks

By ED COFFIN

Two Monterey High School track records were broken as the locals raced to a double win in a three-way meet on the hilltop oval Saturday afternoon. The varsity scores were Monterey 84, Gonzales 56½, and Gilroy 19½, and the lightweight tally read Monterey 90, Gonzales 28, Gilroy 22.

Both of the new marks came about in the limited division, as Ken Palmer cracked the Monterey broad jump standard with a leap of 20 feet, 1¼ inches, and Ron Linares registered a feet, seven inches in the high jump.

Palmer, as usual, rang up his double by placing first in the shot put as well as the broad jump. Bob Raby also tallied a double, winning the 75-yard dash and the pole vault.

Monterey's lightweights gave up on one first place in coasting to their win. Tom Urquidez of Gonzales copped the high hurdles.

Gonzales annexed seven firsts to six for Monterey in the varsity chase, but the Toreros gained more than enough points with seconds and fourths to notch the victory.

Jim Cabanyog grabbed both hurdle races for the only double posted in the varsity.

TRAINING CAMPS

By ED CORRIGAN
AP Sports Writer

Harry Agganis, the Greek from Boston University, found himself in a peculiar spot a year ago. He was having trouble deciding whether to join the National Football League or take a try at professional baseball.

Even two years ago, he probably wasn't quite sure. But today he cast his lot with the Boston Red Sox and with only one year of professional experience behind him, he is in line to be at least the part-time first baseman for Lou Boudreau's outfit.

Right now, the 25-year-old Harry is hitting .323 against major league pitching on the Grapefruit circuit. If he makes out, the Red Sox will have more than realized the $30,000 bonus they paid him in 1952.

Agganis won yesterday's ball game for the Red Sox when he drove in two runs in their 3-2 victory over Atlanta of the Southern Assn.

The amazing Bob Friend and his equally amazing Pittsburgh Pirate mates continued their rampage by shutting out the Philadelphia A's 2-0. Friend held the A's to four hits and now has tossed 19 straight scoreless innings.

With two out in the ninth inning, the New York Yankees scored seven runs and thereby saved themselves the ignominy of being beaten by Savannah of the Sally League. The final count was 11-9. Ed Lopat, who is scheduled to start the opener for the Yanks, was unimpressive for the five innings.

The Philadelphia Phillies were set down with four hits by Jack Urban of the Birmingham Barons of the Southern Assn. 2-1.

The Milwaukee Braves whipped the Brooklyn Dodgers 18-14 in a free-hitting contest. This one was all hitting and no pitching. Both starters, Bob Buhl of the Braves and Billy Loes of the Brooks, were hit hard. Eddie Mathews, the major leagues' home run king last year, hit his fifth round-tripper in as many days.

George Shuba, Duke Snider and Carl Furillo homered for the Dodgers.

The Chicago White Sox scored three times in the eighth inning to turn back the St. Louis Cardinals 5-3. The Cards got some solace by making a triple play in the first inning.

Willy Westlake hit a home run and a double to lead the Cleveland Indians to an 8-4 victory over the New York Giants. Bob Feller, permitting only three hits in five scoreless innings, was the winner—his first triumph of the spring.

A pinch homer by veteran Bruce Edwards climaxed a seven-run seventh inning that helped the Chicago Cubs maul the Baltimore Orioles, 10 to 2, at Mobile, Ala. Bob Rush and Omar (Turk) Lown hurled the victory for Stan Hack's crew.

Cincinnati Redlegs downed the Washington Senators 10-4 with Wally Post, who couldn't make the team last year, leading the assault with a three-run homer, two doubles and a single.

Ford, Furgol in Playoff After Greensboro 'Feud'

GREENSBORO, N. C. (U.P.)—Doug Ford, husky 31-year-old New Yorker from Kiamesha Lake, and 36-year-old Marty Furgol, playing out of Lemont, Ill., meet today in an 18-hole Greensboro Open Golf Tournament playoff.

The winner gets $2,000, the loser $1,400.

The two tied yesterday for top money with 283s, one under par for the 6,723-yard Starmount Forest Country Club course.

There is no love lost between Ford and Furgol as they demonstrated yesterday.

Ford had become embroiled in an argument with Bill Nary, Reno pro and a buddy of Furgol. Nary, Ford and Bob Rosburg, formerly of San Francisco played together.

On the 15th hole of their morning round Nary contended Ford had bent back with his foot a small bush near his ball and stepped on it to afford himself a better stance, contrary to the rules. Nary sought to have a two-stroke penalty charged to Ford.

Ford, a member of the PGA tournament committee, and a marshal who spotted his ball throughout the day, disagreed with Nary. A 20-minute discussion ended with Harvey Haynor, PGA tournament supervisor, deciding for Ford and signing his card when Nary refused. In the locker room, Ford and Nary had almost come to blows.

Within an hour, they were back on the first tee and Nary opened with a flurry of three birdies on his final round to pull into a third place tie with Sam Snead, four-time winner here, at 284, only one stroke off the leaders. Nary and Snead each won $300.

Snead, who had started the last two rounds tied for the lead with Ford and Julius Boros, had a 73-71. A misbehaving putter throughout the tournament cost him dearly. He broke it after he'd finished.

Rosburg, caught in the Ford-Nary fire, held a two-stroke lead at 211 after 54 holes, but succumbed quickly with a 7 on the par 4 second in the afternoon. He rallied on the final nine for 285 and a 5th place tie, worth $850, with Jim Ferrier, San Francisco.

Ralph Bisenquist of Glendale and Jimmy Clark of Los Angeles with 291s shared a 12th place tie, worth $210 each, with Boros, Mike Homa and Johnny Palmer.

Ord Five Faces Camp Kilmer In All-Army Basketball Opener

FORT LEWIS, Wash. (U.P.)—The beginning of the end of 1953-54 basketball in the Pacific Northwest gets underway here today with the first game of the All-Army Championship Tournament.

Nine area championship teams will compete in the tourney.

Today's action pits Fort Ord, Calif., for the Sixth Army against Camp Kilmer, N.J., of the First Army in the first tournament contest.

Third Army champion Camp Gordon will meet the Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Md., in the second clash.

Today's final tilt will be between Fort Leonard Wood of the Fifth Army and Camp Chaffee of the Fourth Army.

Fort Belvoir, the European Command, and Washington, D.C., Military District will face their first competitors tomorrow.

Former college greats will spark the attacks of at least two of the Army teams. Johnny and Eddie O'Brien, the fabulous twins who put Seattle University on the basketball map, play for Aberdeen Proving Grounds. Dick Groat, former Duke University All-American, leads the Fort Belvoir squad.

Former Ord Boxer Wins Over Bassett in TV Bout

WASHINGTON, D.C. (U.P.)—Cisco Andrade of Compton, Calif., sought a match with top ranking lightweight today following a unanimous 10 round decision over Percy Bassett, interim world featherweight champ here Saturday night.

Former Army (Fort Ord) star Andrade, undefeated in 23 professional fights, took every round from Bassett, holder of the featherweight crown during Sandy Saddler's military tour. He would like a fight now with former lightweight titlist Jimmy Carter.
