A I believe that is when it was. It is vague.

Q Since your father's death, what do you miss most about your father?

A I miss him talking to me. I miss him guiding me in terms of finances and decimals. I miss his guidance in terms of making sure I make the right decisions with regard to my career. I miss him going out to concerts and sharing things and having a family.

I miss him sitting at the Thanksgiving dinner where he sits. I miss him talking about what the minister talked about at church.

I miss him and my mother together sharing a life, and I miss him talking about all of the things we were going to do, talking about building my house and his house and he is not there to do that, take care of stuff.

Q Thank you, Dr. Wood.

MS. HINES: I have no further questions.

THE COURT: We will have cross-examination
