Recall Failing, 1st Returns Show

of by Parents for Prayer after the board members voted for a policy banning teacher-led prayer in the second in the district's history.

It is believed to be the first time called to the country over the subject of prayer in the public schools.

Four candidates are opposing the present board members.

Mrs. Gertrudes Gale, for William Nuttall and the Rev. Edward Ellis are endorsed by Parents for Prayer. A fourth candidate, Albert Mandell, is running without endorsement.

Losers believed on the recall, if it is a recall election, said the board members who have supported the recall in their fellow board members.

The recall, if successful, will have left 3 seats the victims of two other board members, Mrs. Joan Abbott and Wendell Kirby. Both resigned, were voted out of office in the county's first successful recall of a school board member.

There could be a new majority over Samuelson of a 4-to-3 vote.

To Hear Fund Talk

St. Mark's College student will hold a dinner meeting tonight at the Knox Fish Grill on Mission Island to discuss the college's fund-raising program.

Dennis T. Mannion, S.F., president of the college, will be the guest speaker. He is to report on the $11 million development program known as Operation Vision.

Andreen was opposed by the Rev. Mr. Ellis, Mrs. Burnett by Mrs. Gill and Mangon, and Johnston by Mr. McClendon, a grocerman.

The controversy began after the board received a letter from the American Civil Liberties Union asked to the district's kindergarten classes.

After consulting County Counsel Bertram Malkin, Dr. Ellis board voted 3-2 to ban teacher-led kindergarten prayer.

numerous may evolve to "reduce to reasonable proportions" the number of professionals needed to carry out community welfare programs.

Because the curriculum was developed in close cooperation with the Council on Social Work Education, Dr. Burke said the school's accreditation is expected within a two-year prescribed period.

CYCLE POLICE TO GET WORD

Motorcycle police who are well known for rush-hour driving operations today will get a pep-up on motorcycle traffic safety.

Approximately 75 men attending a three-day convention of the National Motorcycle Officers of California here will get the word from the California Highway Patrol.

A team of the highway patrol's safety experts will meet a seminar for the motorcycle officers at 10 a.m. at convention headquarters at Vacation Village.
