Monsanto

FROM (NAME & LOCATION) J. R. Savage – General Office

L. W. Miller

DATE : September 11, 1970

SUBJECT : TOXICOLOGICAL EXPENSE

REFERENCE :

cc: Mr. A.J. Koenig
Mr. W.B. Papageorge

TO : Mr. J. L. Corder
Anniston Plant

As we discussed, mechanical expense directly associated with correcting plant pollution problems should not be charged to toxicological expense.

Only the Analytical, Research and Engineering expense associated with defining and solving the technical problems is to be charged to this account. Of course, if there were mechanical expense associated with a pilot plant or other experimental unit for PCB control, it would go to this account.

J. R. Savage

md

DSW 552008

IN-10 REV. 11-65