DUTCH BOY
LIQUID DRIER

A COMPANION PRODUCT TO
DUTCH BOY WHITE LEAD AND
DUTCH BOY LINSEED OIL

THIS fine addition to the Dutch Boy family of painters' products is just one more proof that we accept our responsibility to the white-lead painters of the country. Under today's conditions and with today's materials, paint is a very important necessity to most painters. Realizing this, we experimented and tested until we developed a painter's dryer that measures up to the Dutch Boy standard of quality.

You can use this drier with your Dutch Boy white-lead and Dutch Boy linseed oil—in perfect safety. It is an unusually strong drier of the best known composition—prepared to keep about efficient drying of the paint—always uniform in strength. It will not curdle or injure the paint in any way.

In brief, it is a Dutch Boy product in every sense of the word, meeting the rigid requirements of reliability and purity that characterize every material bearing the Dutch Boy trademark.

Get a supply of this reliable product for your next job. It is made especially for use with white-lead.

Sold in half-pints, pints, quarts and gallon cans
