Q Do you know what his involvement with Marshall Granger and Company was in terms of Institute business?

A I didn't know he had one.

Q Did you ever receive any type of report or information from Mr. Weaver concerning asbestos that you disagreed with in terms of his treatment --

A No.

Q -- of that subject?

A No. I thought he was a sharp person.

Q Do you believe in general he would be as more if not -- as much if not more informed about asbestos and its hazards than you were in your position as executive director?

MR. FRIESTEDT: Object to the form.

A I would assume that he knows more about asbestos than I would.

Q Did you meet Mr. Weaver at the Institute or did you know him before you came?

A Met him at the Institute.

Q Is it your understanding that he was an executive with the Raybestos-Manhattan Company?

A Yes.

Q Did you work at all with him in dealing with issues regarding response to press inquiries of the Institute
