MR. KRAUSE: I think the exhibit speaks for itself. I think the exhibit differentiates between assembly suppliers and lining suppliers.

Q (BY MR. FLOYD) Could you go over that list, just to make sure that we have the correct information, and give us the list of assembly suppliers and the list of linings and pads suppliers?

MR. KRAUSE: You want him to read the whole 11 pages into the record?

MR. FLOYD: No, I don't want him to do that. I would like him to look it over and see if that is correct according to his records.

Is that all he has there is the attachment list

Q (BY MR. FLOYD) Is that all you have, Mr. Ridenour?

A On brake linings, yes, this is it.

Q Were there any warnings on any of the brake assemblies or linings received from these various companies from 1961 t 1975, when they were received by the Ford Motor Company, i regard to the danger of asbestos?

MR. KRAUSE: You are saying through 1975?

MR. FLOYD: Yes.

THE WITNESS: No.

Q (BY MR. FLOYD) None whatsoever?

A That is correct.

Q I am talking specifically about brake linings, brake pads
