It's the hard-to-clean places . . .

—that same tooth decay. Vigorous brushing with Regum dislodges the yellow film that often leads to dreaded pyorrhea. Keep your mouth healthy, your gums firm, your teeth clean with

Regum TOOTH PASTE

At Your Druggist's

"No dentifrice can replace your dentist"

Gertrude Hatch May

Piano and Harmony

Pupil of Lisa Wickes, Royal Conservatory, Brussels, Belgium.

460 Channing Avenue

RADIO PROGRAMS Daily By W. P. FULLER CO.

Fuller's Materials

Used Exclusively by . . .

REILLY & CO.

Painters—Paperhangers Decorators

Estimates Cheerfully Given PHONE P. A. 4931 978 Channing Ave., Palo Alto

General Electric CLEANERS

Supreme Value at a Very Low Price.

$35.50

Less Attachments.

Ask Us for a Demonstration.

STANFORD Electric Works

Cor. University & Ramona Ph. 4130

FUR WORK

SOCIETY-⋄-CLUBS-⋄-PERSONALS-⋄-MUSIC-

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA GROUP TO PRESIDE AT ALUMNAE TEA

LOCAL alumnae of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority will be hostesses at the first Stanford Resident Alumnae Association tea of the spring quarter, to be given Wednesday afternoon, April 9, in the Stanford Women's Clubhouse.

Those on the general committee arranging the affair are Mrs. Charles Wells, Mrs. A. M. Standish, Mrs. James C. Ray, Mrs. A. M. Cathcart and Mrs. George Lawry. Mrs. Percy McDowell will have charge of refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Allen Emery, Mrs. George Whisler, Mrs. H. W. Stuart and Miss Dorothy Putnam. Mrs. George F. Morell, Mrs. A. M. Standish and Mrs. Edwin A. Cottrell will decorate.

Reservations may be made through Mrs. Walter Tomson, 1319 Tasso street, or Mrs. E. C. Ewell, director of the Stanford Women's Clubhouse.

COMMITTEES ARRANGING ARMY RELIEF LUNCHEON

Several committees are at work on arrangements for the bridge-luncheon to be given April 30 by the Army Relief Society at All Saints' parish house. Mrs. Margaret Wright (Dial 6561) and Mrs. George Armstrong (Dial 21262) are taking reservations. Mrs. H. F. McFeely has charge of refreshments and Mrs. Jane Everts is planning a candy table. Mrs. Carroll A. Devol and Mrs. G. G. Bailey will receive.

SORORITY ALUMNAE OF REGION PLAN LUNCHEON

Pi Beta Phi alumnae and actives chapters around San Francisco Bay will unite for a luncheon at the William Taylor Hotel in San Francisco on Saturday, April 5, at 12:30 o'clock in observance of Founders' Day. Reservations should be made through Mrs. Howard Taylor (Dial 3360) before Wednesday.

RETURNS FROM EUROPE TO ATHERTON HOME

Mrs. Beverley MacMonagle has returned to her home on Atherton avenue after several months in France and Italy. Mrs. MacMonagle is a sister of Mrs. Frederick S. Moody of San Francisco, mother-in-law of the former Helen Wills.

PASS WEEK AT CARMEL HOME

Mrs. Clay Miller of Atherton and her two sons, Clay Jr. and Norman, with Miss Beth Thompson of Palo Alto, passed the vacation week at the Miller cottage in Carmel.

TRUST COMPANY EMPLOYES ARE ENTERTAINED

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Leroy Stevick of Atherton were hosts on Saturday at luncheon to between 40 and 50 employes of the Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland.

ENTERTAIN FRIENDS AT CARMEL OVER WEEK-END

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston MacAdams and Miss Kathleen MacAdams of Madrono avenue, Southgate, entertained a party of friends over the week-end at Carmel.

SOUTH PALO ALTO P.-T. A. IN CHARGE OF THRIFT SHOP

The Parent-Teacher Association

Department Heads For Spring Sale Named By Auxiliary

Mrs. H. B. Fisher will act as treasurer for the rummage sale to be held April 8 and 9 in the old postoffice building by the Auxiliary to the Stanford Home for Convalescent Children. Other departmental chairmen for the sale will be:

Plants and flowers, Mrs. A. C. Hahn and Mrs. Frank Buck.

Hats, Mrs. Eli Weil.

Shoes, Mrs. De Lancy Lewis and Mrs. Ira B. Lillick.

Lingeries, Mrs. Harold K. Faber and Mrs. George Sutton.

Dresses, Mrs. Almon E. Roth.

Household goods, Mrs. William Boyd Weir.

Men's clothing, Mrs. Douglas McMurdo and Mrs. Charles Branstein.

Books, Mrs. Timothy Hopkins, Mrs. Newell Bullock and Miss Ida Wehner.

Toys, Mrs. Samuel Pond and Mrs. Frank Mills.

Children's clothing, Mrs. Fred A. Wickett and Mrs. George S. Forderer.

Mrs. Richard I. Lockey and Mrs. George B. Culver are general chairmen of the sale, which is given for the benefit of the Auxiliary's endowment fund.

Church Wedding Unites Couple

The marriage of Miss Marian Oliver and George Reece was solemnized yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the First Christian Church, the Rev. E. Wellington McCash officiating. Harold Matthews, brother-in-law of the bride, played the wedding music and Miss Corinne Elkins sang, "I Love You Truly." The bridal procession came down the aisle of the church, the bride walking with her father, C. R. Oliver, who gave her in marriage. She was gowned in ivory satin, trimmed in lace, with a veil of tulle caught with orange blossoms. Her flowers were white sweet peas and frisias. Mrs. Matthews attended as matron of honor. She was in orchid georgette, with a bouquet of matching sweet peas. The maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Douglas, wore pale green georgette and carried Columbia roses. Little Barbara Jeanne Daughters of Oakland, a cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She was in yellow and carried a basket of rose petals. Jack Reece was his brother's best man and Raymond Oliver was the usher.

The church was decorated in Easter lilies and bridal wreath. Broom and bridal wreath were used in the foyer, where the couple stood to receive their friends in-

BOYS' CLUB VISITS SAN FRANCISCO

Fifteen members of Alpha Delta, young men's club of the First Congregational Church here, enjoyed a visit to San Francisco Friday afternoon when inspections were made of two large steamships and several business houses, after which "Ladies of the Jury" was attended at the Alcazar Theatre. The party went aboard the Dollar liner, "President Cleveland," and the Panama-Pacific liner, "California"; inspected the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company's building and the head offices of the American Trust Company, and learned how athletic goods were made at the A. G. Spaulding Brothers' factory. Dinner followed the tour.

Those who made the trip with R. B. Dodge, Alpha Delta advisor, were Kenneth Eells, Joe Lawry, James Dowrie, Phil Roedel, Porter Nutting, William Proctor, Coburn Palmer, James Ray, Howard Wright, Richard Buckwalter, Paul Crary, Robert Stephens, Myron Roberts, Vincent Meyer and Gerald Collins. James Dowrie, Paul Crary, Phil Roedel, James Ray and Robert Stephens were initiated during the trip.

MAYFIELD W. C. T. U. TO ELECT OFFICERS

Officers will be elected for the ensuing year at the regular meeting of the Martha Saltiffe Women's Christian Temperance Union (Mayfield) tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Laura Hopping, 535 Oberlin street. Delegates to the county convention will also be chosen.

EAST P. A. CLUB TO MEET WEDNESDAY

At the regular meeting of the East Palo Alto Woman's Club to be held Wednesday afternoon at the Ravenswood School auditorium, Byron R. Snow, teacher of music in the school, will talk briefly on musical instruments. Mrs. R. H. Perry is in charge of the program.

GARDEN EXPERT TO ADDRESS CLUB

MOUNTAIN VIEW, March 31—Charlotte Pitkin Brock of San Jose, an authority on rock gardens and pools, will speak on this subject at the meeting of the Mountain View Flower Lovers Club tomorrow afternoon in the Woman's Clubhouse. All members and others interested are invited to attend.

PARIS (AP)—Smart and collarless coat ensembles are appearing on Parisians distinguished for taste in dress. Cape collars of blouses form a scarf worn outside the coat frequently.

Allen To Play At U. Of Oregon Tomorrow Night

Warren D. Allen, Stanford University organist, left last night for Eugene, Ore., where he will give an organ recital tomorrow evening.

Last week, he played in Immanuel Presbyterian Church, Los Angeles, and a few days before that had given a recital in Trinity Church, San Francisco. In the latter program, he was assisted by Austin W. Sperry, baritone.

Returning to the campus Wednesday night, Mr. Allen will give the first organ recital of the spring quarter at 4:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon in the Stanford Memorial Church. It will follow a Lenten vesper service to be conducted by the chaplain, Dr. D. Charles Gardner, who has just returned after several months abroad. Mrs. H. P. Hansen, soprano, will assist. The following Beethoven numbers will be played by Mr. Allen: "Nature's Adoration." Large from Sonata, opus No. 7; Allegretto from Seventh Symphony, Andante Cantabile and Finale from Fifth Symphony.

MRS. FREMONT OLDER WRITES FIESTA PLAY

"The Madonna of Monterey" is the title of a historic pageant play written by Mrs. Fremont Older, wife of the well-known San Francisco editor, for the Fiesta de las Rosas this year which will be given on the night of May 16 and 17.

It has to do with the pecadillos of Gov. Pedro Fages and his puritanical wife who is finally driven to divorce. Senora Fages, who is a new arrival in California, is shocked at the nudeness of the Indians and gives them her clothes when her husband refuses to pass an appropriation to dress the savages.

GANDHI AND HIS PROGRAM TO BE TOPIC OF TALK

"Mahatma Gandhi and His Program" will be the theme of an address at the Congregational church Wednesday evening by B. Hunt McClain. The speaker, a new resident of Palo Alto, was for a number of years in India and Burmah engaged in the international Y. M. C. A. service of which he is now one of the principal executives on the Pacific coast. The occasion is the monthly church night of the Congregationalists, and will be preceded at 6:30 by a supper service by the women to the families of the congregation and newcomers. Mr. McClain's address at 7:45 is open to the public.

DUTCH SOLOIST DELIGHTS WITH SONGS OF FOUR LANDS

By ELIZABETH E. BATES

Those who attended the Community House program arranged by Mrs. Swift Berry yesterday afternoon, not only had their legitimate expectations of a pleasurable hour fully realized but found a delightful surprise in store for song, the saucy coquetry of the second French song, the reverential quality of the Masseenet, or the intensity of the Schumann love songs she captured the mood unerringly, and carried her audience with her.

Mrs. Swift Berry filled in at short notice with a delightful read-

Sororities Hea

Irma L. Tapp of Fuller Col., chairman of National H Hellenic Congress, will pre at annual sessions in Des She is president of Alpha D Pi Sorority.

Associated Press Pi

STANFORD DAMES MEET THURSDAY

The Stanford Dames will Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o in the Stanford Women's house.

Sm Pri Ca

The very newest for wear from da . . . at leisurely busy offices . . . prints add bits the day's regime, ly conceal their low cost. Smart tails such as bo jabots, capes, p