...ssociation while employed at the San Diego Pipe and Supply Co., 5650 Dwight St. The...ployment the three in 1966 and the...ments reviewed between 1961 and October, 1964, a probation report said.

SLASHES BOOKS

The report said that Mrs. Jenson denies taking any money, but admits she obtained numerous appliances and television sets from the firm by using a system of off-set bookkeeping entries.

"Maintaining two homes, going to Hawaii for a weekend, spending $6,000 for a local vacation, renting limousines and the like would not be in keeping with the rather moderate income which she and her husband earn," the report said.

Mrs. Jenson was earning $105 per week at San Diego Pipe and Supply, while her husband, Lyle, was earning between $135 and $140 per week as a machinist at Rohr Corp., the report said.

CLAIMS REQUEST

The report also said that Mrs. Jenson claimed she had received an inheritance, but could not recall the amount, when it was received or in what

Dr. Gorton Re-Elected By Adoption Unit

The San Diego District board of the Children's Home Society of California, an adoption agency, yesterday re-elected Dr. Vinz Gorton as chairman.

Other officers elected at a luncheon in the Fort Memorial Center, 3918 Kearny Villa Road, were Mrs. Orval A. Walker and Paul L. Shober, vice chairmen, and Mrs. Evan V. Jones, secretary.

Elected to three-year terms on the board were Superior Court Judge Bil Lewis Jr., Marion Grimes, Mrs. Kenneth A. Stevenson and Mrs. James L. Tindall.

Re-elected to three-year terms were Frank Gonsalves Jr., who is P. Morris Jr., Dr. Lawrence S. Beck and Mrs. Walker. Mrs. Lyle Foster joined the board as an ex-officio member.
