WELSH COW 'MODERN:' GIVES BUTTER DIRECT

LONDON (U.S.). A Welsh cow has caught the spirit of the age. In keeping with the movement to reduce help, she obligingly is giving butter without the intermediate stage of milk. She has done away with churning.

Her "milk" is put through the separator, the butter-milk is pressed out. Nothing is left to do but salt the butter and form it into pats. The flavor is as delicious as that of normal butter. The diet of the cow is quite ordinary.

Purdue university dairy men have found soy bean oil meal to be the equal of linseed or cottonseed oil meal in dairy rations.

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 8 (A.P.) — Beekeepers of North Carolina produced the biggest crop of honey in the state's history this year.

Nectar-yielding plants were abundant in all parts of the state and both amateur and professional beekeepers have tons of honey for home use and for sale.

New Guinea outservine, a squeezing plant that grows the shape of a club and to a length of four or five feet, is the latest fruit to be imported to Florida for cultivation.

The plant is a native of British Honduras, although grown in New Guinea. One seed will yield about 80 fruits.

ONE QUART OF SEMI-LUSTRE AND A No. 3 SHERWIN-WILLIAMS BRUSH VULCANIZED IN RUBBER

$1.70 VALUE FOR $1.09

SEMI-LUSTRE is an ideal finish for kitchen and bathroom walls and woodwork. It is also especially satisfactory on bedroom and breakfast nook walls and furniture where a durable, washable finish is required. Comes in twelve pleasing pastel colors which can easily be intermixed to many other shades. Easy to apply on plastered walls and ceilings, concrete walls, wall board, hollow title, brick and wooden surfaces where beauty as well as utility must be considered. Semi-Lustre colors do not fade and may be stippled, if desired, to obtain the so-called mold-color or Tiffany effects.
