Q What do you remember discussing?

A I don't remember anything.

Q What about it do you remember?

A I just remember there was a fellow with that name. What did you say, what was that name again? Well, I don't remember the name, I remember Hill and Knowlton. I don't remember the fellow's name. And somebody from JM had lined me up with him. And they wanted to go, I guess they wanted to go and let people know that there was an asbestos problem developing and they should be aware of it. I think that's what it was all about, to alert us to a problem.

Q Do you remember it involving the solicitation of the FMSI's support in opposing the Illinois Pollution Control Board's proposed --

MR. FRIESTEDT: Objection.

A That could have been it.

Q -- proposed ban on asbestos?

MR. FRIESTEDT: Objection.

A That could have been it.

Q Okay. Let me draw your attention to a document I would like for mark as M next in order, it's dated August 27th, 1971, on Hill and Knowlton letterhead. If you could review that for a moment, I would like to ask you if that
