Monterey Peninsula Herald

ALLEN GRIFFIN, Publisher

Monterey Peninsula Herald, Sept. 29, 1947, P. 2

Voice singing in the second group provided some appealing moments. Duparc's "Extase" was given in velvety pianissimo. This was successfully followed by "Pool of Quietness" by the late Tom Cator, a Carmelite whose loss is still mourned by old timers. Warming up, Ellsworth Walston swung into Hageman's "Do Not Go, My Love," and developed a good forte for "Over the Steppe" by Gretchinanoff, which ended the most enjoyable section of the recital.

ESURIT

Virginia Walston, soprano, revealed esprit in "La Girometta" by Sibella. Her attack in Schubert's "Die Aufenhalt" was vital and expressed the mood of the song. The final group of duets from the Mozart operas "The Magic Flute" and "Don Giovanni" proved an attractive spot on the program. These vocalists reveal skill, training and experience. Mildred Randolph Strand's accompaniments were clean cut, and provided character without intruding.

Many narcissus blooms have a narcotic effect when their fragrance is inhaled and the name itself is the Greek word for a sleep-producing drug.
