Wonsover, the modern flat wall enamel is made from pure alkyd resins developed exclusively through Dutch Boy research. The result is a unique wall finish that combines the beauty of a glare-free flat with the durability of an enamel.

Solid is the word for the covering ability of this alkyd flat. Smooth and easy are the words for its application. Pleasant is the word for the lack of disagreeable odors and words just can't describe the beauty and rich degree of color that only an alkyd flat finish can bring to the walls of your rooms. You'll love it.

Remember, the same top quality that distinguishes Wonsover, the flat wall enamel can be found in every paint or finish that wears the Dutch Boy label. It's your assurance of complete painting satisfaction.
