OFFICER PUTS OUT FIRE; TELLS CROWD TO AID RED CROSS

PHILADELPHIA, April 15 (A.P.)—Patrolman Charles Seiber extinguished a fire in an automobile, then saw that a crowd had gathered.

He mounted the running board, cleared his throat and bellowed like a carnival barker. Ladies and gentlemen, this is only the sideshow. The main attraction is just a few doors away. Admission: shoulder to shoulder.

He pointed to a Red Cross subscription booth.

"They were packing up. I kept them pouring worthwhile to speak of," he said.

Trainees Flown To Kins' Bedsides

Through emergency flights to the east by United Air Lines, the AAFTC command at Coffeyville, Kans., allowed 2 trainees were taken from the 67 Training maneuvers in Hooper valley to find they would be at the bedsides of seriously ill relatives.

Pvt. Earnest V. Sadler, 20, was granted his furlough to be at the bedside of his wife, injured in a motor accident. Also demonstrations enough to allow the presence Pvt. Frank Bertucci, flown to San Diego to watch over from his Detroit, where he mother was rushed downstairs in all fields of the C.A.F. planes were Lts. C. H. Hyatt jr. and W. A. Busse.

Air over mid-ocean is free from cold spaces.
