MR. IGNATOWSKI: The next is a compilation, it doesn't have an exhibit number, and we will be putting in the supporting exhibits. And I have showed this to defense counsel, Your Honor.

It is a list of exhibits from the Industrial Hygiene Foundation digests, and we will be reading an answer to either admissions or interrogatory that indicates that Ford admits that they were a member of this organization from 1947 to 1974.

Owens-Illinois admits that they were a member from 1936 to 1975.

Owens-Corning Fiberglas admits that they were a member from 1942 to 1950, 1953 to the present.

The first document is offered against Owens-Illinois at which time they were a member and it is dated January, 1938.

That will be the exhibit number IHF-186 that we will put in at a separate time.

It is an abstract titled, Pulmonary Asbestosis: The Asbestos Body and Similar Objects in the Lung, dated December 11th, 1937, published in the
