Carmel High Padres finally won its first game of the season when the Padres "trounced" the Marello Prep Panthers of Santa Cruz 32-12 Saturday afternoon at Carmel.

The Carmel junior varsity made it a clean sweep by beating the Panther junior varsity 14-6 (Details tomorrow.)

Carmel takes on the Gonzales Spartans next Saturday afternoon at Carmel.

"I was very pleased with the team in that they didn't lie down and die after losing five straight. They kept up the spirit," commented Coach Jason Harbert.

Carmel received the opening kickoff and drove to Marello's 30 yard line, where fullback Scott Green broke through for a 30-yard scoring joint. The conversion run by Jerry Argust failed.

Still in the first quarter, Carmel tailback Jerry Argust took a pitch-out, faked the run and threw a spectacular 60-yard pass to end Bob Poulos at Marello's eight-yard line. Two plays later, tailback Mike Merlo "powered" his way into the end zone for six points.

The conversion pass from Tony Lucido to Steve Hare was good for 14-0.

In the second quarter, Marello finally got on the board as Panther quarterback Bruce Burda "pumped" a 50-yard scoring pass to end Paul Mattucci. The conversion run by Leroy Locatelli failed and Carmel led 14-6.

Carmel defensive back Fred Kipich subsequently intercepted a Burda pass and raced 40 yards before being brought down. On the next play, tailback Mike Merlo "streaked" in from 17 yards out for the touchdown.

The conversion pass by Lucido failed and Carmel led 20-6.

In the third quarter, Marello quarterback Burda faked a dive and "raced" around left end to score from 10 yards out. The conversion pass by Burda failed.

Padre linebacker Wade Gaash picked up a Panther fumble and raced 35 yards for the score. Conversion pass by Lucido failed.

Carmel scored once more as quarterback Lucido threw a 12-yard pass to end Ted Buck. Conversion run by Merlo failed, 32-12.

Praised for their Carmel play were Scott Green, Mike Sanborn, Mike Merlo, Steve Foley, Ford Pollard, Lui Gutterriz and Steve Burdick.

Stevenson Scores Fifth Straight Football Win

By Art Garrison

CAMBRIA — Mike Kidd's 172 yards rushing for three touchdowns led the Robert Louis Stevenson School varsity football team to a 52-28 homecoming "spoiler" over Coast Union High Saturday.

In the preliminary game, the RLS frosh-soph team won 14-2.

The wins increased Stevenson's varsity and frosh-soph records to 5-0 and 2-2, respectively.

Kidd led all players in total offense, scoring touchdowns from one yard out twice and again from five yards. He carried the ball 38 times, and recorded a 4.5-yard average per carry.

Quarterback Al Hood, who moved the team effectively, completed only one pass, but that was a 60-yard TD play to his Banker Larry Hall early in the second quarter.

Hall also returned a Coast Union kickoff 70 yards for a touchdown before the half. The score at halftime was 36-14 for RLS.

The Broncos were led by the outstanding passing of quarterback Gary Gowdy.

RLS defensive star Steve Powers, a linebacker, was deeply involved in 28 tackles, while Les Jones at halfback intercepted Gowdy twice. Putter Goodwin and Toby Hilliard also had important interceptions, but that didn't stop Coast Union from racking up more than 280 yards in the air.

Stevenson scored only twice in the second half, with Powers recovering a fumble and racing 30 yards to score, and Al Hood tallying on a five-yard keeper.

Both teams went into the game undefeated, and, after witnessing his team's fifth straight victory, RLS head Coach Tor Spindler said he expects to finish the year at 6-0:

"We're going to have to work plenty on our defense, primarily the passing defense. I was extremely happy with the way Steve Powers, Jon Elliott, Mike Kidd, and just about everyone else on this team played."

Stevenson Frosh-Soph standouts were quarterback Mike Winton, fullback Jeff Green and defenders Jeff Hogan, Scott McMichaels, Bob Gorostizu, and Jim Flagg.

The Pirates play Menlo School next Saturday at Pebble Beach to wind up the season.

Lobos Chase Gavilan Quarterback

Gavilan College quarterback Dave Ottmar (14) is chased by four Monterey Peninsula College Lobos — Andy Isadere (45), Vern Fletcher (86), Sal Costanza (75) and Rich Backmaan (65). Gavilan won the conference opener 31-12 Saturday night at MPC Stadium. MPC continues league play Friday afternoon at Menlo College.

Lobos Lose League Kickoff

By Alex Hulanicki

A devastating Gavilan offense, spearheaded by three second-quarter Dave Ottmar touchdown passes, defeated Monterey Peninsula College 31-12 Saturday night in MPC Stadium.

MPC (3-3) goes after its first Coast (JC) Conference win at Menlo College Friday afternoon.

In other conference openers Saturday night, Hartnell whitewashed Cabrillo 27-0 and Ohlone downed Menlo 24-14.

Gavilan and Hartnell clash for the conference lead Saturday night in Hollister.

"Our defense was very poor as we made too many mistakes," said Lobo Coach Luke Phillips. "Gavilan picked us apart in the first half."

Gavilan's Rams racked up 335 yards on the ground and 163 passing for a total of 488 yards.

The Rams' leading ground gainer was Mike Johnson, a recent transfer to Gavilan, with 123 yards in 17 carries.

Taking game rushing honors was Lobo Perry Dorsey with 138 yards in 27 carries. Dorsey, ranked second in Northern California, has rushed for 794 yards in six games.

As soon as Gavilan received the opening kickoff, the Rams marched 65 yards to score. Mike Cembellin capped the drive on a one-yard plunge. Mike Basinger added the conversion kick for 7-0.

A Ram defense that shut off MPC's run and limited the passing of Lobo quarterback Bob Howell held MPC scoreless in the first and fourth quarters.

In the second period, Ottmar showed the poise and accuracy that made him the All-Coast Conference quarterback last year as he threw for three touchdowns.

The first came with 10:01 remaining in the half on a 10-yard pass to Greg Taylor. Basinger kicked the conversion upping the score to 14-0 Gavilan.

Ottmar lined up his squad on the 48 yard line later in the quarter, took time to position his tight end, then calmly fired a scoring strike to wider receiver Dwight Sims. The conversion kick by Basinger was blocked.

On the subsequent series the Lobos drove 70 yards to score with 2:14 left in the half. Dorsey navigated the final three yards to cap the 12-play drive. Doug Aversano's conversion kick attempt was wide.

However, Gavilan's Johnson exploded for a 45-yard jaunt that reversed the field and was apparently on his way into the end zone — but a streaking Lobo, Emengton Allen, collared Johnson on the five yard line.

On the next play Ottmar found Taylor waiting in the end zone. Ottmar added the two-point conversion run to make the score 28-6 with six seconds left in the half.

The second half was "won" by the Lobos six to three.

On the half-opening drive by MPC, Howell fired a 13-yard pass to a sprawling Aversano in the edge of the end zone to cut the score to 28-12. Dorsey's conversion run failed.

Moving the ball consistently, Gavilan ate up the clock and was knocking at the door in the early minutes of the fourth quarter. However, MPC held the Rams to a 23-yard field goal by Basinger to close out the scoring.

"The were a very physical ball club and executed very well," commented Phillips. "We missed a lot of tackles."

Monterey Junior Varsity Rests After Grid Victory

By Charles Drummond

Monterey High junior varsity football team will draw a bye this week as Aptos High has no junior varsity team.

The Matadores last Friday defeated Santa Cruz 16-0, while the Monterey sophomores tapped North Salinas 20-8.

Ken Hamilton recovered a Santa Cruz junior varsity fumble in the first series of plays to set up the Matadores' first touchdown from the one yard line by Barry Albert. The conversion on a quarterback keeper by Fred James was good, 8-0.

Later in the second quarter, Milton Carter made a remarkable 51-yard punt return to score. James took the ball in on the conversion and the score was 16-0 at the half.

In the fourth quarter, Leland Dandridge caught a James pass and ran 76 yards to a "touchdown" that was erased by a clipping penalty.

Praised for their performances were James, Bob Bradford and Carter.

The Matadores' next opponent is Harbor Nov. 5.

In the sophomore practice game, Tony Lagana of Monterey scored on runs of seven and four yards. Dan Monar passed 50 yards to the third tally.
