Simple Hall Serves Best

An entrance hall serves two purpose. It introduces guests to the house and it gives family members a degree of privacy from the comings and goings of the rest of the family. That demand is best fulfilled by surfacing the hall with a material, such as quarry tile which is durable and pleasing to look at.

Another good point to remember is to keep as much furniture out of the hall as possible. Don't clutter it up with small chairs, tables, coat racks, gilded mirrors. Keep it simple, fresh, practical.

RUG SAVER HINT

Rubber-backed scatter rugs should be unrolled to cool as soon as they are removed from the drier.

successive generations have contributed little to design improvement.

Now, the open home, with use areas divided or separated by only a suggestion of a wall or room divider, is responsible

The trick is to design the room divider so that it looks like a piece of furniture. Because of the great beauty of color and grain of Douglas fir and west coast hemlock lumber, many of the most ex-
