Square Dancers' Festival Sunday

Oakland area square dancers will participate in a Mid-State Square Dancers' Association festival from 1 to 6 p.m. Sunday in the San Jose Civic Auditorium.

The dancers will leave San Francisco for San Jose at 11 a.m. Sunday aboard a special train. They will dance in an 80-foot observation car en route.

Eight top callers will be on hand, including Bea Binns, Chuck Burgess, Uppie Upton and Ken Samuels, of the Northern Callers Association, and Donald MacDonald, Jerrye Shelton, Ray Willets and Tex Deboney, of the Mid-State group.

Willets and Deboney will call dances on the train.

Varied Fare at Alameda Theaters

Randolph Scott and Raymond Massey are featured in "Sugarfoot," now at the Alameda. "The 13th Letter," co-starring Charles Boyer, Linda Darnell and Michael Rennie, completes the bill.

Betty Grable and Dan Dailey are the co-stars in "Call Me Mister," now at the Alameda Drive-In. "The Texas Meets Calamity Jane" succeeds the program.

"Bird of Paradise," with Jeff Chandler and "Border Treasure," starring Tim Holt, comprise the Vogue screen fare.

Dennis Morgan and Patricia Neal share the bath in "Raton Pass," now at the Rockmont. "Lightning Strikes Twice," with Ruth Roman, completes the program.

A television star you never see on your tv screen is a grand and gracious gentleman by the name of "Shorty" Evans.

He's KGO-TV's chief engineer and he's one of the smartest hombres who ever rode herd on a video or audio signal.

I take great pride in presenting him here . . . taking a "joy ride" in KGO-TV's newest gizmo — an ele-
