PLAINTIFF'S EXHIBIT
MAR-237

May 19, 1980

Mr. R. Reuter
Department 733P

According to our engineer on environmental matters, E. Kramer, neither OSHA or CPSC require a label on brake shoe boxes warning about asbestos dust hazards. Therefore, putting a warning label on the box could result in some confusion in the customers mind regarding handling of the brake shoes and the shoes might be returned.

L. G. Rovelle

EXHIBIT
NO. I-26
DATE 1-13-84
EVD. ☐ IDENT ☒

LGR/ecg

cc: E. Kramer, D/817
T. Flannery, D/628