The Students' Welfare Council which has the enforcement of the "honor spirit," summoned Russel to the hearing yesterday and brought up the printing of "Green"

"Do you realise that articles o the nature of 'Green' are unfit for campus circulation?" Russell was asked.

"The Occident has been bannes and is not published on the cam pus," Russell replied.

"Are you going to print future ar ticles like 'Green?' he was the asked.

"Certainly," the 21-year-old edito responded.

That concluded the hearing, an expulsion, which was not resorte to when Russell was alleged to hav cast aspersion upon the nativity o Jesus Christ, was immediatel recommended by the council.

EDITOR NOT SURPRISED

"I am not surprised," Russe said. "The reason I took the image sine from the campus was the un fair jurisdiction the faculty at tempted to exercise over it. wasn't aware that the universit authorities exercise jurisdictio over off-campus activities."

Lewis is a senior, and was to hav received his Bache or of Arts de gree on May 13.

Lewis was formerly president the English Club, But resigned whe he feared that the controversy h was embroiled in would injure th organization. The club retired fro campus activities after he resigne
