admission, counsel just mentioned some Dartez documents. I have objections.

They are Johns-Manville documents that he is offering against me, and I object to that.

THE COURT: I understand. Who else?

MR. WILLIAMS: Same objection, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. TOSTANOSKI: Your Honor, I don't think Your Honor would want me to do it in front of the jury, but I have very detailed objections.

These are not documents that have come in in any of the cases that I have been with Your Honor before, and I do want to make a record on that. And I think there are certain documents --

THE COURT: We will do that at the appropriate time.

MS. TOSTANOSKI: Thank you. I do object to all of the Dartez documents, but there are certain things I need to put on the record.

THE COURT: I will reserve my ruling on them until we hear them out of the presence of the jury.
